

Institute for Corruption Studies
Inaugural Workshop on Corruption

Day 1 (Friday, May 4)

Breakfast at ISU Foundation Chicago Office (8.30 AM-9.00 AM)

Keynote Speech by Alina Mungiu-Pippidi (9.00 AM-10.00 AM)

Coffee Break (10.00 AM-10.15 AM)

Session 1 (10.15 AM-12.30 AM)

- Understanding Electoral Accountability: Why Corrupt Parties Sometimes Rewarded and Sometimes Punished (Andreas Bagenholm, University of Gothenburg)
- Self-Selection in Corrupt Judicial Systems: Evidence from Ukraine (Jordan Gans-Morse, Northwestern University)
- Pathways to Corruption: Institutional Context and Citizen Participation in Bureaucratic Corruption (Marina Zaloznaya, University of Iowa)

Lunch at ISU Foundation Chicago Office (12.30 PM-1.30 PM)

Session 2 (1.30 PM-3.00PM)

- Are Women Less Corrupt Than Men? Advancing the Debate on the Relationship between Gender and Corruption Looking at Survey Data in Africa (Natascha Neudorfer, University of Birmingham)
- A Seed Theory of Impartial Government: The Role of Household Gender Equality (Amy Alexander, University of Gothenburg)

Coffee Break (3.00 PM-3.15 PM)

Session 3 (3.15 PM-4.45 PM)

- Does Competition Encourage (or Deter) Unethical Firm Behaviour? (John Thanassoulis, University of Warwick)
- Supervising Relational Contracts (Marta Troya Martinez, New Economic School)

Dinner at Lockwood Restaurant-Palmer House Hilton (7.00 PM-9.00 PM)

Venue

ISU Foundation Chicago Office
150 N Michigan Ave.
Suite 1590
Chicago, IL 60601

Date and Time

May 4 2018, 8.30AM-5.30PM
May 5 2018, 8.30AM-5.30PM

Organizer

Oguzhan Dincer
odincer@ilstu.edu

Institute for Corruption Studies
Inaugural Workshop on Corruption

Day 2 (Saturday, May 5)

Breakfast at ISU Foundation Chicago Office (8.30 AM-9.00 AM)

Keynote Speech by Eric M. Uslaner (9.00 AM-10.00 AM)

Coffee Break (10.00 AM-10.15 AM)

Session 1 (10.15 AM-12.30 AM)

- 100 Years of Corruption in the United States (Oguzhan Dincer, Illinois State University)
- Polarization of Income in the Presence of Corruption (Indranil Dutta, University of Manchester)
- Corruption, Institutional Stability and Inequality (Christian Bjørnskov, Aarhus University)

Lunch at ISU Foundation Chicago Office (12.30 PM-1.30 PM)

Session 2 (1.30 PM-3.00PM)

- Unprincipled Principals: Co-opted Bureaucrats and Corruption in Local Governments in Ghana (Sarah Brierley, Washington University St. Louis)
- Citizens, Bribery and the Propensity to Protest (Dan Hough, University of Sussex)

Coffee Break (3.00 PM-3.15 PM)

Session 3 (3.15 PM-5.30 PM)

- Does the Fish Rot from the Head? Evaluating the Effect of Organized Crime on Educational Outcomes (Massimo Finocchiaro Castro, Mediterranean University of Reggio Calabria)
- Corruption and the Public Opinion on Foreign Aid (Geske Dijkstra, Erasmus University Rotterdam)
- Leniency, Asymmetric Punishment and Corruption: Evidence from China (Maria Perrotta Berlin, Stockholm School of Economics)

Dinner at Lockwood Restaurant-Palmer House Hilton (7.00 PM-9.00 PM)

Venue

ISU Foundation Chicago Office
150 N Michigan Ave.
Suite 1590
Chicago, IL 60601

Date and Time

May 4 2018, 8.30AM-5.30PM
May 5 2018, 8.30AM-5.30PM

Organizer

Oguzhan Dincer
odincer@ilstu.edu